

Anjou Villages Brissac

2011

Savory, fuller-bodied with dark fruit flavors and firmer tannins. This wine can only be bottled from September 1st in the year following harvest.

Blend: Cabernet Sauvignon (100%)

Color: Red

Type: Dry

Alcohol: 13% by vol.

Appellation: AOP (Appellation d'Origine Protégée) Anjou Rouge Village Brissac

Soil: Schist with gravel

Description

Deep garnet red color. Powerful and pleasant nose. Intense flavour of blackcurrants, chocolate and a subtle hint of coffee.

Food & Wine Pairing

Braised beef, charcuterie platter, all sorts of cheese

Tasting Notes

91/100 – Guide Gilbert & Gaillard

